President Kennedy wanted Americans to think about service, responsibility, participation, and cooperation, because he believed people should not simply wait for someone else to improve the world around them.

Answer Key, One Strong Model

Model TRACKS category: K, Key Knowledge

“There was a feeling that our country was entering a new chapter, and many people believed ordinary citizens could help make that chapter meaningful.”

- ✓ C, Connects directly to the prompt
- ✗ S, Supports the thesis statement
- ✓ I, Leads to Ideas / Inference (not a dead end)

True, and it shows the mood of the time, but it does not name the specific ideas Kennedy wanted people to think about.

“I slowly wrote down the words service, responsibility, participation, and cooperation.”

BEST EVIDENCE

- ✓ C, Connects directly to the prompt
- ✓ S, Supports the thesis statement
- ✓ I, Leads to Ideas / Inference (not a dead end)

Connects directly and supports the thesis (the narrator recorded the exact ideas Kennedy emphasized), and leads to the idea that these words captured what he cared about most.

Comprehension Question, Prove It

QUESTION

Which sentence from the passage best shows the ideas President Kennedy emphasized again and again?

- A “Those were exciting days,”
- B “He wanted Americans to think about service, responsibility, participation, and cooperation.”
- C “I opened my notebook, clicked my pen, and wrote the date across the top of the page.”
- D “But one idea came up again and again.”

Choose ONE sentence that proves the exact claim, not just a sentence that is true.

Answer + Why, Correct Answer: B

QUESTION

Which sentence from the passage best shows the ideas President Kennedy emphasized again and again?

- A “Those were exciting days,”
TRUE BUT WRONG
True, but it is a general comment about the time, not the ideas he emphasized.
- B “He wanted Americans to think about service, responsibility, participation, and cooperation.”
CORRECT, PROVES THE EXACT CLAIM
This proves the exact claim, these are the ideas Kennedy wanted Americans to think about.
- C “I opened my notebook, clicked my pen, and wrote the date across the top of the page.”
WRONG TIMELINE POINT
True, but it describes the narrator getting ready, not the ideas Kennedy emphasized.
- D “But one idea came up again and again.”
PLAUSIBLE BUT REQUIRES AN ASSUMPTION
True, but it only says an idea came up often, so a reader would have to assume which ideas.

THESIS

Trading gold and salt was useful for the people of Mali because some places had gold but little salt, while others had salt but little gold, so trading let everyone get what they needed.

PROMPT (WHY)

Answer Key, One Strong Model

Model TRACKS category: K, Key Knowledge

“People wanted gold because it could be made into coins, jewelry, and decorations.”

- ✓ C, Connects directly to the prompt
- ✗ S, Supports the thesis statement
- ✓ I, Leads to Ideas / Inference (not a dead end)

True, and it explains why gold was wanted, but it does not show why trading gold and salt together was useful for everyone.

“Salt was just as important because it helped preserve food and keep people healthy.”

BEST EVIDENCE

- ✓ C, Connects directly to the prompt
- ✓ S, Supports the thesis statement
- ✓ I, Leads to Ideas / Inference (not a dead end)

Connects directly and supports the thesis (salt was needed too, so trading both helped everyone), and leads to the idea that people trade for the things they cannot make themselves.

A “Gold was one of Mali's greatest natural resources.”
TRUE BUT WRONG
True, but it names a resource, not why people in different places needed to trade.

B “Some places had plenty of gold but little salt, while other places had salt but not much gold.”
CORRECT, PROVES THE EXACT CLAIM
This proves the exact claim, places had different resources, so they needed to trade to get what they lacked.

C “These trips could last for weeks or even months.”
WRONG TIMELINE POINT
True, but it describes how long the trips took, not why people needed to trade.

D “Merchants also traded cloth, tools, leather, spices, pottery, and other goods that people needed in their daily lives.”
PLAUSIBLE BUT REQUIRES AN ASSUMPTION
True, but it lists other goods, so a reader would have to assume it explains why different places needed to trade.

PROMPT (WHY)

Why is the Coastal Plains a good region for farming and business?

THESIS

The Coastal Plains is a good region for farming and business because it has warm, humid weather with frequent rainfall for growing crops, and large cities that connect Texas to other places through trade.

Answer Key, One Strong Model

Model TRACKS category: R, Reactions

“Many people live in this region because the land and water support different kinds of work.”

- ✓ C, Connects directly to the prompt
- ✗ S, Supports the thesis statement
- ✓ I, Leads to Ideas / Inference (not a dead end)

True, and it shows people live there for work, but it does not name why the region is good for farming and business.

“These cities help connect Texas to other places through trade, transportation, and business.”

BEST EVIDENCE

- ✓ C, Connects directly to the prompt
- ✓ S, Supports the thesis statement
- ✓ I, Leads to Ideas / Inference (not a dead end)

Connects directly and supports the thesis (the cities make it good for business by connecting Texas through trade), and leads to the idea that big cities help a region's economy grow.

- B “The climate has warmth and humidity, with frequent rainfall.”
- C “The Coastal Plains is the largest region and stretches along the Gulf of Mexico.”

Answer + Why, Correct Answer: B

QUESTION

Which sentence from the passage best explains why crops grow well in the Coastal Plains?

A “Cities such as Houston and Corpus Christi are located in the Coastal Plains.”

TRUE BUT WRONG

True, but it names cities, not why crops grow well.

B “The climate has warmth and humidity, with frequent rainfall.”

CORRECT, PROVES THE EXACT CLAIM

This proves the exact claim, the warm, humid climate with rain helps crops grow.

C “The Coastal Plains is the largest region and stretches along the Gulf of Mexico.”

WRONG TIMELINE POINT

True, but it describes the region's size and location, not why crops grow well.

D “It includes flat land, many rivers, and thick forests.”

PLAUSIBLE BUT REQUIRES AN ASSUMPTION

True, but it describes the land, so a reader would have to assume it explains why crops grow well.
