

EXACT TEKS WORDING (FROM TEA)

“revise drafts to improve sentence structure and word choice by adding, deleting, combining, and rearranging ideas for coherence and clarity”

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN TO ME?

Authors choose each word on purpose to say exactly what they mean.

When I notice a strong word, I ask what it shows and why the author chose it.

Choosing precise words makes my own writing clear and interesting.

THIS WEEK'S FOCUS

Connotation

from “Henry Ford: Visionary of Travel”

Connotation is the feeling a word carries. Two words can mean almost the same thing but feel positive or negative.

This deck teaches word choice across the five RPLD thinking levels:

NOTICE → CHOOSE → SHOW → OWN → DEFEND.

“This week we are studying word choice. Our focus is connotation.”

▶ Show the cover. Read the exact TEKS wording aloud, then read the What does this mean to me box in your own warm voice.

“Connotation is the feeling a word carries. Two words can mean almost the same thing but feel positive or negative. Good writers pick the word that says exactly what they mean.”

▶ Point to the five thinking levels. Preview the week: we NOTICE strong words in the reading, CHOOSE the strongest word, SHOW what a word does, OWN it by revising a sentence, then DEFEND the author's choice.

PREP & MATERIALS: the Word Choice slide deck for Cluster 5 Module 2 • a class or student copy of “Henry Ford: Visionary of Travel” • the student tracking sheet • pencils

WORD CHOICE IN THE READING

“Only wealthy individuals could usually afford to buy one.” (word: wealthy)

“Henry remained committed to his vision.” (word: committed)

“Communities that were once isolated became more connected to surrounding areas.” (word: isolated)

CHECK FOR UNDERSTANDING

Ask a student to name one word with a strong feeling from the reading and tell what it shows.

RAISE THE THINKING

Ask a student how one sentence would change if the author used a plain word instead.

TODAY'S THINKING JOB

NOTICE

"I can notice a word with a strong feeling."

EXACT TEKS WORDING

"revise drafts to improve sentence structure and word choice by adding, deleting, combining, and rearranging ideas for coherence and clarity"

Notice the word with a strong feeling.

Read this sentence from the passage. Find the word that carries a strong feeling.

"Only wealthy individuals could usually afford to buy one."

I CAN I can notice the word with a strong feeling an author chooses.

⌚ ~4 min

" " = say word-for-word • ▶ = teacher direction (do not read aloud)

"Today's thinking job is NOTICE. I can notice a word with a strong feeling."

▶ Read the I can statement aloud, then the task on the slide: Notice the word with a strong feeling. Read this sentence from the passage. Find the word that carries a strong feeling.

"Listen as I read the sentence. I am looking for the word with a strong feeling, the word that does the most work."

▶ Read the sentence aloud twice. Give think time, then have students copy the word on the NOTICE row of the tracking sheet.

ANSWER KEY: wealthy. Wealthy carries a feeling of having much more than enough money, stronger than just saying they had money.

TEKS 11(C) • Word Choice • Week 22 of 36 • Cluster 5 • Module 2 • slide 2 of 10

CHECK FOR UNDERSTANDING

Ask a student to explain the answer in their own words and point to the word in the sentence.

COMMON MISCONCEPTION

Students may think words that mean almost the same thing feel the same. Compare the feeling each word gives.

POSSIBLE STUDENT QUESTION

Is a longer word always better? No. The best word is the one that says exactly what the writer means in this sentence.

RPLD EVIDENCE & ADVICE

NOTICE at Foundational is about recognizing a word with a strong feeling. Keep the demand at this level.

RAISE THE THINKING

Ask a student to name a weaker word the author could have used, and what would be lost.

CHOOSE

"I can choose the strongest word."

EXACT TEKS WORDING

"revise drafts to improve sentence structure and word choice by adding, deleting, combining, and rearranging ideas for coherence and clarity"

Choose the strongest word.

Read the sentence. Which word carries the strongest feeling?

"Henry remained committed to his vision."

A. remained B. committed C. vision

I CAN I can choose the word with a strong feeling and explain how I know.

TEKS 11(C) · Word Choice · Week 22 of 36 · Cluster 5 · Module 2 · slide 8 of 10

CHECK FOR UNDERSTANDING

Students can explain what the word shows, not only name it.

COMMON MISCONCEPTION

Naming a word without explaining it. Ask how and why for at least two answers.

POSSIBLE STUDENT QUESTION

Why not use the simple word? Because the exact word gives the reader a clearer picture or feeling.

RPLD EVIDENCE & ADVICE

Reviewing is where OWN turns into DEFEND. Push for reasons.

RAISE THE THINKING

Ask how the author's words connect to the mood or message of the whole passage.

READ THIS PASSAGE EXCERPT.

Instead of accepting that automobiles were only for wealthy people, he worked to make them available to ordinary families. His willingness to think differently helped create lasting change.

The word ‘ordinary’ helps the reader understand that Ford wanted to help

- A only the richest families in America
- B everyday families who were not wealthy
- C people who already owned automobiles
- D business owners who sold cars

TEKS 11(C) · Word Choice · Week 22 of 36 · Cluster 5 · Module 2 · slide 9 of 10

CHECK FOR UNDERSTANDING

Students choose by meaning in context, not by which word sounds fanciest.

COMMON MISCONCEPTION

Choosing a word that is close in meaning but has the wrong feeling. Check the whole sentence.

POSSIBLE STUDENT QUESTION

Two answers seem close. How do I pick? Put each word into the sentence and ask which says exactly what the author means.

RPLD EVIDENCE & ADVICE

A clean test item is DEFEND in action under assessment conditions.

RAISE THE THINKING

Ask why each wrong choice is wrong, which leads into the next slide.

The answer is B.

- A only the richest families in America
The excerpt contrasts ordinary families with wealthy people, so Ford wanted to help those who were not rich.
- B everyday families who were not wealthy
Correct. Ordinary means regular, everyday people, showing Ford's goal was to help families who could not afford expensive cars.
- C people who already owned automobiles
Ford wanted to reach people who did not own cars yet, not those who already had them.
- D business owners who sold cars
Ordinary refers to regular families, not business owners.
