

EXACT TEKS WORDING (FROM TEA)

“revise drafts to improve sentence structure and word choice by adding, deleting, combining, and rearranging ideas for coherence and clarity”

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN TO ME?

Authors choose each word on purpose to say exactly what they mean.

When I notice a strong word, I ask what it shows and why the author chose it.

Choosing precise words makes my own writing clear and interesting.

THIS WEEK'S FOCUS

Connotation

from “Sam Walton: Visionary of Retail”

Connotation is the feeling a word carries. Two words can mean almost the same thing but feel positive or negative.

This deck teaches word choice across the five RPLD thinking levels:

NOTICE → CHOOSE → SHOW → OWN → DEFEND.

WORD CHOICE IN THE READING

“Money was often tight, and young Sam helped by delivering newspapers, milking cows, and doing small jobs to earn extra money.” (word: tight)

“His plan was simple but bold.” (word: bold)

“The Great Depression was a time when many people across the United States struggled financially.” (word: struggled)

CHECK FOR UNDERSTANDING

Ask a student to name one word with a strong feeling from the reading and tell what it shows.

RAISE THE THINKING

Ask a student how one sentence would change if the author used a plain word instead.

TODAY'S THINKING JOB

NOTICE

"I can notice a word with a strong feeling."

EXACT TEKS WORDING

"revise drafts to improve sentence structure and word choice by adding, deleting, combining, and rearranging ideas for coherence and clarity"

Notice the word with a strong feeling.

Read this sentence from the passage. Find the word that carries a strong feeling.

"Money was often tight, and young Sam helped by delivering newspapers, milking cows, and doing small jobs to earn extra money."

I CAN I can notice the word with a strong feeling an author chooses.

▶ Read the I can statement aloud, then the task on the slide: Notice the word with a strong feeling. Read this sentence from the passage. Find the word that carries a strong feeling.

"Listen as I read the sentence. I am looking for the word with a strong feeling, the word that does the most work."

▶ Read the sentence aloud twice. Give think time, then have students copy the word on the NOTICE row of the tracking sheet.

ANSWER KEY: tight. Tight carries a negative, strained feeling, showing the family barely had enough money and had to be very careful.

TEKS 11(C) · Word Choice · Week 24 of 36 · Cluster 5 · Module 4 · slide 2 of 10

CHECK FOR UNDERSTANDING

Ask a student to explain the answer in their own words and point to the word in the sentence.

COMMON MISCONCEPTION

Students may think words that mean almost the same thing feel the same. Compare the feeling each word gives.

POSSIBLE STUDENT QUESTION

Is a longer word always better? No. The best word is the one that says exactly what the writer means in this sentence.

RPLD EVIDENCE & ADVICE

NOTICE at Foundational is about recognizing a word with a strong feeling. Keep the demand at this level.

RAISE THE THINKING

Ask a student to name a weaker word the author could have used, and what would be lost.

The answer is D.

- A made only small, temporary changes to stores
Transform means a complete change, not a small or temporary one.
- B confused shoppers about where to buy products
Transform means to change for the better. It does not suggest confusion.
- C copied what other store owners had already done
Transform means creating major change, not copying existing ideas.
